

Project Catalogue

Project name and objective
Name, overall and specific objective and geographical coverage (max 10 lines)
Target groups of the project
Please explain the short term (intermediate) and long term (final and beyond) target group(s) (max 5 lines)
Partners
With whom did you co-operate in the project? (max 10 lines)
Practical background and needs assessment of the project
Why was this project needed? What was the essential problem or challenge that you wanted to tackle? Any data and models should be indicated (max 20 lines)
Theoretical background of the project
Please explain the theory of science behind the project and describe the tools, concepts and methods you used during the implementation (max 30 lines)
Practical experience
What did you learn? What was the added value of project? Did you encounter any mayor difficulties during the implementation? What were the success factors for the implementation of the project – e.g. the right political climate, sufficient funds, good management, engaged target group, or.....?? (max 30 lines)

Effect and evaluations

Has the project been evaluated? If yes, how was the evaluation carried through? Have you seen any immediate effects on the target group? (20 lines)

Perspectives and exchange of experiences

What are the future perspectives of the project? Is there any special conditions that partners in other countries should be aware of if they want to implement a project like yours? (max 25 lines)

Contacts

Name and contact details of contact person + links to relevant project sites.